

Employee profile: Software engineer

Job Title Software Engineer
Site Eye on Air BV www.eyeonair.nl
Location Enschede
Date 2017

1. PURPOSE OF THE JOB

The company designs molecular sensors. The challenge for you as our software engineer is to design and develop firmware for the control of time-critical electronics. Furthermore, you need to develop the PC-level application to interpret the gathered data. Within the company you will work within a team of highly motivated scientists and engineers.

2. REQUIRED KNOWLEDGE AND SKILLS

Qualifications/ Experience Good hands-on and practical skills in software engineering are essential. Hogeschool or University degree (bachelor or master).

Knowledge Practical experience with C, C# and C++.
Good understanding of microcontrollers and basic understanding of electronics will be a benefit.

Additional Skills Good communication skills
Good proficiency in English

Additional conditions Planning/Organising capacity
Suited for teamwork
Attention to details
Responsibility

3. WORKING CONDITIONS

Challenging work, with growth perspectives.

Contract duration: Temporary full-time employment contract. Depending on performance, permanent contract is negotiable in the future.

Salary: depending on skills and work experience